THE PARTIES' JOINT STATEMENT REGARDING MEDIATION

The Plaintiff, Denny Densmore, and the Defendant, National Board of Medical Examiners, respectfully submit that mediation is not feasible at this time. Plaintiff is seeking injunctive relief, not money damages, which will make it difficult for the parties to reach a settlement at mediation. In addition, expert discovery is still in its early stages. The parties need the benefit of additional expert discovery before they can evaluate the suitability of mediation. The parties agree to revisit the possibility of mediation in the future if and when they agree it would be productive.
